

THE SPOUT SPRING TIMES.

VOL. I.

SPOUT SPRING, KY., MAY 2, 1896.

NO. 15.

Jerry Ryan, who lives in this city near the line of the C. & O. railroad, discovered in a well which had been dug about 25 years ago and abandoned on account of peculiar smell of the water, that it was two-thirds full of water, as he supposed, but upon examination found that one-half of it was a superior grade of kerosine. Mr. Ryan, in order to satisfy himself that there was an oil vein in his well, had it cleaned and as it fills up the oil is again perceptible. —Mt. Sterling Advocate.

SALE OF DOGS.

At a recent dog sale held at Winchester, they brought very satisfactory prices, selling all the way from $5. to $75. There were 19 of the canine animals offered for sale, and all sold. The total amount of the sale was $573, an average of nearly $27 per head. We suggest that farmers pay more attention to the rearing of dogs, since the time has come that they sell for more than common horses.

EFFICACY OF PRAYER.

At Athol, in Breathitt county, George W. Mars, Tom and John Bowman, Andy Barrett and John Fugate, desperate young fellows, entered the Presbyterian Church, where services were being conducted by the Rev. B. B. Biggerstaff, of Bath county. They commenced flourishing pistols and cursing aloud, causing men, women and children to disperse through the doors and windows. The Rev. Biggerstaff, taking in the situation, appealed to God to send down upon the young men the wrath of heaven. He prayed vehemently for some time before the desperadoes were attracted by his words, but when the congregation had dispersed they became panic-stricken and commenced to tremble in the presence of the minister. For some seconds they could not move under the influence of his fervent prayer. Finally they broke and ran from the house, leaving the minister still praying. Warrants have been issued for their arrest. —Winchester Democrat.
